

Have Patience

Live the questions now.

“Have patience with everything that is unsolved in your heart and ...

try to cherish the questions themselves,

like closed rooms and like books written in a very strange tongue.

Do not search now for the answers which cannot be given you because you could not live them.

It is a matter of living everything.

Live the questions now.

Perhaps you will then gradually, without noticing it, one distant day live right into the answer.

Perhaps indeed you carry within yourself the possibility of shaping and forming,
as a particularly pure and blessed kind of life;
train yourself for it –
but take what comes in complete trust.”

P. 21.
